Important information

Your duty of disclosure

You must comply with your Duty of Disclosure when you apply for insurance with us and each time you renew or alter your cover.

You have a Duty of Disclosure to tell us everything you know, or should know, that is relevant to our decision to insure anyone under the policy, including you, and on what terms. It includes matters we specifically ask about when you apply for a policy, or renew or alter your policy, and any other matters which might affect whether we insure you and on what terms.

The information you tell us can affect:

- the amount of your premium
- if we will insure you
 - if special conditions will apply to your policy.

You do not need to tell us of anything which:

- reduces the chances of you making a claim or
- we should know about because of the business we are in or
- we tell you we do not want to know.

If you are unsure, it is better to tell us. If you do not tell us something which you know or should know is relevant, we might reduce a claim, refuse to pay a claim, cancel your policy or, if fraud is involved, we can treat the policy as if it had never existed.

Cooling off period

You have the right to cancel and return the insurance policy by notifying us in writing within 30 days of the date it was issued to you (“cooling off period”), unless you have a claim under the policy within the cooling off period.

If you cancel it in this time, we will return the amount you have paid.

Paying your premiums

We will tell you how much you have to pay and how much time you have for payment. You must pay your premium by the due date. For the first period of insurance, if you do not pay the premium owing by the due date, we can cancel your policy as set out in ‘Cancellations’ below.

For renewal policies, if you do not pay your premium by the due date, then the renewal policy will not commence and your cover will end at the expiry of the previous period of insurance.

Paying by monthly instalments

If you pay your premium by monthly instalments and your payment is overdue we can:

- a. refuse to pay a claim if payment is 14 days (or more) late; and
- b. cancel your policy if payment is a month (or more) late.

Cancellations

You can cancel your policy at any time. The cancellation takes effect on the date we receive your request.

We can cancel your policy at any time according to law. If you pay by monthly instalments and an instalment is unpaid for more than 1 month, we can cancel your cover.

If your policy is cancelled we will refund the proportion of your premium for the unused period of insurance less any non-refundable government charges.

The FCS entitles certain persons, who have valid claims connected with certain protected policies issued by that insurer to be paid certain amounts by APRA. Information about the FCS can be obtained from APRA at www.apra.gov.au or by calling 1300 55 88 49.

The premium for the period shall be adjusted and any difference paid by or allowed to You as the case may be. PROVIDED that the adjusted premium shall not be lower than the minimum premium normally charged by Us for such a Policy.

You must inform Us of the extent to which You are entitled to an input tax credit for that GST amount each time that You make a claim under this Policy. No payment will be made to You for any GST liability that You may have on the settlement of a claim if You do not inform Us of Your entitlement or correct entitlement to an input tax credit.

Despite the other provisions of this insurance (including provisions in the Policy wording, the Policy schedule and any endorsement), Our liability to You will be calculated taking into account;

- a. any input tax credit to which You are entitled for any acquisition which is relevant to Your claim, or which you would have been entitled were you to have made a relevant acquisition.

'GST', 'input tax credit', 'acquisition' and 'supply' have the meaning given in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.
