1. Change of company name

General Insurance Transfer

GIO General Limited will transfer its general insurance business to a related company, AAI Limited ABN 48 005 297 807 (AAI) by way of a scheme under the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth), which has been confirmed by the Federal Court of Australia.

In the months before the Court confirmed the scheme, GIO General Limited undertook steps (including but not limited to newspaper and internet advertising) to bring the then proposed transfer to the attention of policyholders.

The scheme will take effect on and from 1 July 2013, or such other date agreed by AAI and GIO General Limited and approved by the Court (the Effective Date) and is one of four schemes which are occurring simultaneously as part of an internal reorganisation.

On and from the Effective Date:

- AAI will become the underwriter of all general insurance policies issued by GIO General Limited and will settle all claims under those policies;
- AAI will issue Resilium branded general insurance policies (and PDSs for those policies) and will trade under the business name 'GIO'; and
- all references to GIO General Limited ABN 22 002 861 583 AFSL 229873 (however that company may be referred to) in the PDS and any other SPDS that you have been given for your PDS and in your policy documents (including your policy schedule or certificate) will be a reference to AAI Limited ABN 48 005 297 807 AFSL 230859 trading as GIO.

All policies issued / contracts of insurance entered into:

- before the Effective Date will be issued by and entered into with GIO General Limited and will be transferred to AAI on the Effective Date; and
- on or after the Effective Date will be issued by and entered into with AAI.

Each PDS is unchanged except as indicated above.

Our contact details will not change as a result of the transfer.
